

BANDERA ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION

Application for Program Participation

Information: The Bandera Economic Development Corporation (“BEDC”) is a Type B Economic Development Corporation created under Texas law for the purpose of promoting the development and expansion of business and commerce in and near the City of Bandera. It is funded by sales tax revenue and is authorized to spend up to ten percent of its annual revenue for administrative purposes, which may include certain programs that promote the City and its businesses but which do not involve specific economic development projects. Applicants for participation in an approved BEDC program must complete this form.
